

Chiara Trallori

She graduated in harp in 1996, with honors, under the guidance of Prof. Patrizia Pinto at the Conservatory “Luigi Cherubini” in Florence.

In 1993 she also achieved the maturity at the high school attached to the music conservatory.

In 2007, following the opening of new university courses in Advanced Training music, she majored in harp with the highest grades, always at the Conservatory “Luigi Cherubini”

She attended master classes of harp and chamber music at the Association “Harmonia” from 1992 to 1997 taught by Prof. Patrizia Pinto and M ° Marco Lorenzini.

In 1998 she followed the course for harp held by Prof. Susanna Mildonian Chigiana at the Academy of Siena.

In 1995 she was awarded at the Competition X “Rovere d’Oro”.

She recorded for EMA Records scores by Varotto, Deregis Lorenzini and chamber pieces that both solo. Performs as solo and with various chamber groups throughout Italy. Many concerts performed by the Ensemble ‘Clara’, all-female quintet, with the flutist Simona Altino, and many singers. Lately is performing several concerts as a solo with various orchestras proposing the famous Tuscan Concerto for Flute and Harp K 299 of WA Mozart.

Numerous concert as a first harp in Italian orchestras: the Orchestra Sinfonica “Amadeus” in Florence Sinfonietta , in Florence, the symphony orchestra “Gams” in Florence, the Orchestra da Camera Fiorentina, the Italian women’s instrumental chamber with two concerts performed by the soprano Katia Ricciarelli.

In 2004 she attended a Master in Marketing and Communication Company. She is also been teaching at several music schools of Tuscany, harp classes and preparatory music.

